

The Office of Human Rights seeks to eliminate discrimination, increase equal opportunity and protect human rights in the District of Columbia.

Have You Heard?

You have too many children (or People) in your family...

If you don't have established credit, then we can't rent to you!

We haven't verified your income; your credit check is not back yet.

We don't have any apartments, BUT my other office still has units available

"Are You a Victim of Housing Discrimination?"

WHEN: Saturday, September 6, 2003

TIME: 1:00 p.m.—3:00 p.m.

WHERE: The Tennis and Learning Ctr
701 Mississippi Avenue, SE
Washington, DC 20001

PLEASE JOIN US!

D.C. Office of Human Rights
3220 Pennsylvania Avenue,
S.E., Suite 100
Washington, DC 20020

Phone: 202-727-4559
Fax: 202-645-6390
www.ohr.dc.gov

... And our Partners:

Department of Housing & Community Development (DHCD)

The Equal Rights Center (ERC)